TOUR OVERVIEW

Experience the spiritual heart of Uttar Pradesh with our carefully planned One Day Prayagraj Sightseeing Tour.

Prayagraj, historically known as Prayag and Allahabad, is one of India's major pilgrimage centres. Its spiritual importance centres on the Triveni Sangam, traditionally regarded as the confluence of the Ganga, Yamuna and the mythical Saraswati. Boats operate from the ghat area toward the Sangam for pilgrims and visitors.

The city is also rich in religious, Mughal, colonial and modern Indian history. Your one-day journey combines sacred temples with historical sites such as Anand Bhavan and Khusro Bagh. Anand Bhavan is associated with the Nehru family and India's independence movement, while Khusro Bagh contains important Mughal-era sandstone mausoleums.

This package is especially suitable for travellers who want to see the best places in Prayagraj in one day without worrying about local transport or planning the sightseeing sequence.

DAY-BY-DAY ITINERARY (1 DAYS)

07:00 AM – Pickup in Prayagraj Our representative/driver will pick you up from your: Prayagraj hotel, Prayagraj Junction, airport or another pre-confirmed city location. Proceed towards the Sangam area. 07:30 AM – Triveni Sangam Visit Begin your Prayagraj pilgrimage at the Triveni Sangam, the city's most important spiritual attraction. Tradition identifies the Sangam as the meeting point of the Ganga, Yamuna and mythical Saraswati, and the area has long been an important pilgrimage centre. Activities at Sangam You may choose to enjoy a traditional boat ride, take a holy dip, perform puja or simply spend some peaceful time observing the spiritual activities around the confluence. Recommended duration: 60-90 minutes. Please note: Boat services depend on weather, river level, local administration and safety conditions. 09:00 AM – Shri Lete Hue Hanuman Ji Temple After the Sangam visit, proceed to the famous Bade Hanuman Ji Temple, also popularly known as Lete Hanuman Ji or Bandhwa Hanuman Ji. The temple is notable for its reclining form of Lord Hanuman and is one of the important religious attractions near Sangam. Suggested visit: 30-40 minutes. During major festivals, Tuesdays, Saturdays and pilgrimage periods, darshan may take longer because of crowds. 10:00 AM – Alop Devi Temple Proceed to Alop Devi Temple in Alopibagh. The district's tourism information identifies it as an ancient temple and an important pilgrimage attraction, particularly during Navratri. Spend some time for darshan and prayers. Suggested duration: 30 minutes. 11:00 AM – Anand Bhavan & Swaraj Bhavan Continue to Anand Bhavan, one of Prayagraj's best-known historic attractions. Anand Bhavan served as a residence of the Nehru family, while the adjoining Swaraj Bhavan has strong associations with India's independence movement. Here visitors can explore the historic buildings, photographs, preserved rooms and exhibits according to the sections open on the day of visit. Recommended duration: 60-90 minutes. Important Anand Bhavan/Swaraj Bhavan access is subject to the institution's operating days, public holidays, maintenance and ticket availability. If it is closed, the itinerary can be adjusted with another city attraction. 01:00 PM – Lunch Break Stop at a suitable local restaurant. Guests can choose from North Indian, South Indian, vegetarian or other available cuisines. Lunch is normally not included unless specifically mentioned in the quotation. Suggested break: approximately 45-60 minutes. 02:15 PM – Khusro Bagh After lunch, visit Khusro Bagh, one of Prayagraj's major Mughal heritage sites. The walled garden contains sandstone mausoleums associated with Prince Khusro, Sultan Begum and other members of the Mughal royal family, and the district tourism authority describes the complex as a significant example of Mughal architecture. Recommended duration: 45-60 minutes. It is particularly suitable for visitors interested in architecture, history and photography. 03:30 PM – Civil Lines & All Saints Cathedral Drive through Civil Lines, an important part of the city's colonial-era urban landscape. A photo stop can be made near All Saints Cathedral, popularly called Patthar Girja. The Prayagraj district tourism site describes the cathedral as a late-19th-century Gothic-style landmark designed by Sir William Emerson. It currently states that interior access is available on Sundays, so weekday visits should be treated primarily as an exterior/photo stop unless local access is confirmed. 04:15 PM – Optional City Attraction Depending on available time, your tour can include one of the following: Chandra Shekhar Azad Park, Allahabad Museum, Bharadwaj Ashram, ISKCON Prayagraj, or additional temple sightseeing. The exact stop can be selected according to traveller interest and operating hours. 05:15 PM – New Yamuna Bridge / Riverside View Proceed towards the New Yamuna Bridge area for a panoramic city and river view. The bridge is recognised by Prayagraj district tourism as one of the city's prominent modern landmarks. This makes a good final sightseeing/photo stop before completing the tour. 06:00-06:30 PM – Tour Ends You will be dropped at your hotel, Prayagraj Railway Station, airport or another agreed city location. Tour concludes with memorable experiences of Prayagraj. Actual completion time can vary depending on traffic, temple queues, boating conditions and time spent at individual attractions.
